

CORSO DI AZZERAMENTO a.y. 2018/2019

INTRODUCTION TO GEOGRAPHY OF TOURISM (M-GGR/01)

Prof. Enrico Domenico Giovanni Nicosia

Educational goals:

Knowledge and understanding: The student acquires skills in the geographical field, which will allow him to understand the dynamics of the tourist markets. The teaching activity is directed to obtain the knowledge that constitutes the indispensable element of the geographic knowledge.

Course program:

The course aims to provide students with a conceptual and methodological approach, the tools to understand the themes developed by the discipline: the spatial models of tourism; the relationship between tourism and territory; the relations between tourism and territorial development.

Organization of the course:

The course "INTRODUCTION TO GEOGRAPHY OF TOURISM" has a duration of 10 hours and 3 editions are planned: on September, October and November 2018.

The course is open to all interested students, it is a non-accredited teaching activity, provided to support ordinary teaching activities.

Interview

The course can be useful for students who must participate to the interview to access the master's degree LM-49 ITourDeM regarding GEOGRAPHY and HISTORY area.

Class schedule:

Class schedule first Edition
September 2018
Class schedule second Edition
October 2018
Class schedule third Edition
October 2018

<http://docenti.unimc.it/enrico.nicosia/courses/2018/19731>